

WE ARE ALL SEAN BELL!

The Whole Damn System is Guilty!

THURSDAY—MAY 22ND

ALL DAY

IN SCHOOLS EVERYWHERE

IN THE STREETS

TAKE IT TO THE STREETS

4 PM ASSEMBLE:

RUFUS KING PARK—JAMAICA AVE AND 150TH ST QUEENS, NYC

This system says:

50 shots at unarmed Black youth is no crime!

When the police brutalize or murder Black and Latino people, the victims, not the cops, get disrespected and treated as criminals in court!

The NYPD can stop and frisk 100s of people daily, almost all of them Black or Latino for any reason, or for no reason at all!

The police can kill again and again and again and we just have to learn to accept it.

We say Enough! This must stop!

On May 22 many, many high school students and other youth need to say to the world:

We Refuse to Accept the Future this System Says We Must Accept!

We refuse to accept the murder of Sean Bell and a system that says his life and ours don't count!

We count and we will make our own future!

MAKE THIS THE TOPIC FOR THE DAY: IN SCHOOL, IN THE STREETS
THURSDAY, MAY 22

Hundreds of young people have taken to the streets in Queens to protest this verdict. Many, many older people from all over NYC, and from different walks of life and nationalities, must join the youth.

May 22: Wear Black! Take it to the Street! Count!
ALLEYES ON US!

Spread this call in your school, your neighborhood, among everyone you know—text message, MySpace, Facebook, students, teachers, everybody!
