

MICHAEL BROWN WAS MURDERED— NEVER FORGIVE! NEVER FORGET!

August 9 marked one year since a Ferguson, Missouri, cop, Darren Wilson executed Michael Brown who was unarmed and had his hands up when he was shot multiple times. His body was left lying dead in the street for four-and-a-half hours.

This brutal murder was met with outrage. For days and then weeks people took to the streets with defiance, rage, and righteous rebellion. Without the rebellion, this terrible state-done murder would just be another rerun of the same old, all-too-familiar story where murders by police of Black and Latino youth are just swept under the rug, over and over again.

The struggle in Ferguson opened a crack in the coffin where America has buried alive whole sections of Black and Latino youths and the struggle over the last year has widened the crack further. WE WILL NOT GO BACK.

STOP POLICE TERROR: WHICH SIDE ARE YOU ON?

October 24,
New York City:
Rise Up October
to STOP
Police Terror

www.revcom.us

Above photos, August 8, 2015. Top and right: scenes from a protest of hundreds who marched on the Ferguson police station to confront the killers of Mike Brown with chants, upside-down American flags, and demands for justice (see page 10 for more on the protest). Left: Revolution Club in Ferguson.

Photos: Special to www.revcom.us/Revolution